Too late Districts will make their decisions by mid July. By mid next week you will have influence.

Very interesting! I just returned from furlough and am sorting through story ideas. This is a really good one. You are right, when considering this decision, few are thinking of the risks assumed by employees. I will definitely pitch this story, though it may take me a couple of weeks to get to it. Thank you!

Story idea:

What risk are school boards going to take to reopen schools. If they implement Dr Damsker s model the risk is assumed by employees, especially older ones. The IU has a report of average ages by position - teachers support staff bus drivers et al.

Or assume risk for kids by not being fully back in school. AAP pediatric doctors say back in school for mental health reasons.

The conundrum: risk versus payoff ! 🤔
